Pl.e 1016.

Yesterday arrived the Mail due from France.

THE Paris A-la-main which is dated on Wednesday last says, That on the Friday before, the Cardinal de Fleury had another Fainting Fit, which was followed with a Looseness, that held him all Night, and weaken'd him to such a Degree, that on the Sunday he received the Sacraments, and was next Day somewhat better.

It mentions Advice by Letters of the 6th O. S. from Genoa, that some Days before, they were alarm'd with the Return of the Baron de Neuhoff to Corsica, with two Ships laden with Ammunition and Provisions, giving apprehensive that he had made a new Descent into the Island, but that the Alarm was soon over; that the Inhabitants persisted in their Resolution to submit to the King's Will, and that they had a great Reluctance to lay down their Arms, being still suspicious that when they had quitted them, they would be abandon'd to the Discretion of the Republick, which is what they as much dread as Death itself.

The Excommunication issued against Prince Ragotzky appears at Rome, and the Reason alledg'd for it, the Treaty of Alliance he has made with the Turks against the Emperor.

The A-la-main adds, that last Week a very ancient Man, who had 97,000 Livres ready Cash in his Iron Chest, being desirous to make them up 100,000 before he died, prevailed on his Son to lend him 3000, which he brought him accordingly; and as soon as he had it, the old Gentleman shut himself up in his Closet to put it to the rest; but as he was busy placing his Money in his Chest, the Lid of it fell on his Head, and next Day he was found dead.

They write from Madrid, that on the 26th ult. arrived there, Don Gonzalez Joseph Arrias, a Grandee of Spain of the first Class, in the 72d Year of his Age. He had served the King of Spain in his Armies in Flanders, Catalonia, and elsewhere; and had held the Employments of General of the Province of Andaluſia, and of Captain General of the Town of Cadiz.

The Spanish Letters add, that while the Accommodation betwixt Spain and England seem'd at a Distance, the Ministry at Madrid seem'd to be very fond of acceeding to the Treaty of Vienna; but that since they have been inclinable to accommodate Matters with the English, they have begun to make Quick Declarations of their Refusal to consent to that Treaty, unless the Alterations are made in it which were insisted on at the Beginning.

And from Lisbon, that upon Information given to the Court of a great Number of Frauds committed at Brasil, with regard to the Diamonds dug out of the Mines there, the King, among other Orders he has caused to be published there, has injoin'd the Inhabitants to keep no Diamonds in their Custody; but to carry them all to the Royal Treasury of Brasil, on Pain of forfeiting such Diamonds found upon them, besides severe corporal Punishment; but notwithstanding the Severity of these Orders, three of the principal Inhabitants of Rio de Janeiro, have been taken under Arrest for transgressing them, a great Quantity of Diamonds having been found upon them, which it was discover'd they had dug out of the Mines in secret, contrary to the King's Prohibition.

Vienna, Sept. 6. O. S. The Disorder that happen'd upon the Arrival of the 2d Column of the Bavarian Infantry, was upon this Occasion: The Soldiers imagin'd that they were to receive the first Money of their Pay at this City; whereas they were not to have it till they came to Presbourg, and their Officers were for carrying them directly thither, without suffering them to come ashore here. Upon this the Soldiers mutiny'd, got out of their Vessels, and absolutely refused to continue their Voyage. The Officers endeavour'd at first by Menaces, and afterwards by fair Words, to convince them that they were wrong in their Demand: Nevertheless they persisted in it, and were as insolent as before. Notice of it was sent immediately to the General Marowitsky, their Commanding Officer, who din'd that Day with the French Ambassador the Marquis de Mirepoix; and they both came with a Commissary of War, to try if they cou'd make the Mutineers easy; but they were in such a Flame, that they despair'd of it. The General assured them, that they should be paid as soon as ever they came to Presbourg. The Marquis de Mirepoix did all that was in his Power to pacify them, and gave some Lewidor's to the inferior Officers, that they might prevail on the Soldiers to hearken to Reason. The Commissary of War exhorted them likewise, but all was to no Purpose; for without Respect to the Presence of the French Ambassador, or the General, they abused the Commissary, pluck'd off his Perriwig, and obliged him to retire. In fine, the Bavarian Soldiers being so obstinate in their Pretension, it was resolved to content them, tho' for this Purpose they were also forced to release 3 or 4 of the chief Mutineers, who had been already committed to Prison. The Infantry went on board again afterwards for Presbourg.

Ratisbon. Sept. 10. O. S. Prince William of Saxe Gotha, the Emperor's Lieutenant General in Hungary, solicits the Dyet for the Post of second Velt Marshal General of the Empire, which is at the Disposal of the Protestant States, and vacant by the Death of the Baron de Wutgenau. The Duke of Saxe Gotha his Brother, has also wrote a Letter to the Dyet in his Favour.

His Majesty in Council having been pleased to signify his Royal Pleasure, that the Civil Magistrates of this Kingdom of Ireland, do not take up any more Seamen, till his Majesty's farther Pleasure be known; their Excellencies the Lords Justices have thereupon sent Orders to the several Magistrates of this Kingdom to act conformably thereto.

SCOTLAND.

Edinburgh, Sept. 19. Last Wednesday died the Rev. Mr Joseph Drew, Principal of the University of St. Andrew's, and one of the Ministers of the City.

Saturday Night a young Gentleman had the Misfortune to be attacked by two Fellows in Disguise, on the Walk of Leith, who robbed him of his Money, and not content with that, proceeded to strip him of his Cloaths; but some Persons happening to appear at no great Distance, they thought fit to make very quickly off through the Fields towards Restalrig.

Edinburgh, Sept. 18. On Friday General Wade arrived here from the North, attended by Captain Romer, Chief Engineer for North Britain, and other military Gentlemen. He is to Review two Regiments of Dragoons at Penkie To-morrow se'nnight, on his Way to London.

COUNTRY NEWS.

Norwich, Sept. 23. Last Saturday one Pitt, a noted Smuggler, from West-Worlton, was brought to the Castle on Castle-Hill. And on Thursday one Read, a House-breaker, was committed to the same Place.

Last Tuesday Morning a young Woman in Magdalen street took some Poison, which being afterwards known to her Friends, Advice was taken to prevent the Effects of it, but in vain, and she died the same Night; the Cause being unknown.

On Monday last the Scrutineers went through the List of Persons objected to in Mr. Alderman Black's Poll, and the same was proved in so full and satisfactory a Manner, that the whole was finished at one Meeting. There was an Attempt made to obstruct the Proceeding by a riotous Mob, who behaved in so outragious and insolent a Manner, that the Proclamation was read before they would disperse: This vile Crew of rascally Fellows, consisting of Papists, Nonjurers, and such as were no Freemen, were headed by a broken Shoemaker, and planted before the Door of the Chamber where Mr. Mayor and the Scrutineers were, in order to prevent the Persons objected to, from appearing to support their Right of Voting.

On Thursday the Scrutineers met again, and then declared that they had no more Objections to make on either Side; on which Mr. Mayor acquainted the Gentlemen, that he would lay the whole Proceedings before Council, and take the best Advice before he made any Determination: And accordingly having consulted proper Judges, and being himself fully convinced that there was a fair Majority of good Votes for Mr. Alderman Black, he did Yesterday declare that Gentleman duly elected Sheriff for the Year ensuing; to the great Joy of all his Majesty's fast Friends.

After Mr. Mayor and the Court came from the Hall, the Mob insulted them very much; on which several were committed to Gaol, others of them arm'd themselves with Staves, and struck several Persons: The Proclamation was read, which quell'd the Outrage, and then they dispers'd.

I congratulate the honest Freemen on this happy Occasion; and can assure them, that whenever their just Rights are invaded by false Voters, they will always find a Number of Gentlemen ready to do them the Justice that their Privileges, as Citizens and Freemen, justly deserve.

The Bells in several Parishes were set out a Ringing, some Right, some Bumbled, and some Backward.

This Morning the Conge d'Elire came down by Post, directed for the Dean and Chapter of Norwich, to appoint Dr. Gooch Lord Bishop of this Diocese.

Colchester, Sept. 22. Last Week, John Turpin, Father of the notorious Richard Turpin, the Highwayman and Murderer, was apprehended on a Charge of Horse-stealing, and being carried before one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County of Essex, was committed to Chelmsford Gaol: It appear'd on his Examination, that he lent a brown bay Gelding to a Person to ride to Sturbitch Fair upon, whose Horse happened to tire on the Road; while at Sturbitch the Gelding was claimed by the Owner, and the Man in whose Possession he was found, charged with stealing the same; but on his declaring of whom he had him, and Turpin being secured, he was released: Turpin said in his Defence, that he purchased the Gelding of his Son Richard Turpin. The said Gelding was stolen from Lincolnshire.

Ipswitch, Sept. 22. Last Saturday between 2 and 3 o'Clock in the Morning, a Boy of about 15 Years of Age, attempted to break into the Shop of Mr. Bailiff Marston; but a Shutter falling down into the Street, was over-head by the next Neighbour, who arose out of his Bed and secured the Boy. On his Examination he said he came from Saxmundham, had a Man his Companion, and that they robbed the Shop of Mr. How's in this Town sometime ago, and says his Name is Edwards; he seems a hard n'd Boy, and tho' Young, an old Offender: He was by the Magistrates committed to our Gaol.

Canterbury, Sept. 23. We hear from Sturbitch Fair, that there was about 1400 Bags of Hops, reckoning two Pockets to a Bag, brought there; and about 200 Bags unsold. Kentish Hops sold from 2 l 6 s to 3 l. per Hund. in Bags. And Pockets from 2 l. 15 s. to 3 l. 10 s.

Last Saturday one Richard Howard (formerly Hangman at Maidstone in the County of Kent) was committed to his Majesty's Gaol for the Eastern Division of the said County, charged with stealing a Peter-Boat belonging to one Thomas Lawson of Deptford, Fisherman: Also with committing the horrible and unnatural Sin of Sodomy, three several Times, on the Body of Joseph Gratrix, a young Lad about 14 Years of Age.

Bristol, Sept 23. Last Monday about 12 o'Clock, John Hobbs, condemn'd at our last Assizes for counterfeiting the current Coin of this Kingdom, on the Evidence of one Philips, his Accomplice, was drawn on a Hurdle from Newgate to the Place of Execution, attended by all the Constables of this City, and vaſt Crowd of People. He ſung very chearful as the Horſes drew him along, and ſeem'd not in the leaſt daunted from the firſt Day of his being taken up to the Hour of his Death. He abſolutely denied his caſting the Crown Piece on which he was convicted; and that he never put off a falſe Piece of Money; and while he lived with Sir John Hawkins in the Capacity of a Brewer, and in ſeveral other Services, he bore the Character of an honeſt Man, &c.

The Execution of David Reid, for Sodomy, by violently forcing a Boy of Fourteen, is reſpited by a Reprieve that came down from one of the Principal Secretaries of State laſt Saturday Morning, which followed another that was in the Thurſday's Mail when robbed; ſo that had the Execution been on the uſual Day, Friday, which was poſtpon'd on Account of electing a new Mayor and Sheriffs, it would have come too late, and he had certainly been tuck'd up, to the Satisfaction of the whole City.
